“Cotton Comes to Harlem.” Ex-President Bill Clinton will set up office space in the Black capital of the world. It is the greatest indicator that our capital city has been seized completing its cultural, economic and spiritual conquest. At night you can hear the trampling of the ghost of Garvey’s legions, the lofty writing of the Harlem Renaissance, the gunfire of Bumpy Johnson, the soap box teachings of Malcolm X, as the wail of James Brown cuts through the air. In addition, good hard working people of Harlem from yesterday’s glory through tomorrow’s pain are ignored. They don’t count as we let the destruction of our capital city go unanswered. The fiscal despair, white supremacy’s dope attack, property destruction, the establishment of a foreign business infrastructure, the sell out of the so-called Black radio stations, the military shutdown of Black vendors and police terror has all opened our capital city up as a safe haven for the likes of the New World Order’s Bill Clinton. We can not claim we didn’t see, so now we know we must live with the results of inactivity and disunity as the Black Holocaust gains momentum. The Struggle continues...

The Culture Bandits continue to move on Black musical expressions as the Britney Spears, Diana Krall, N'Sync, Eminem continue to invade Afrikan musical art forms like cultural cannibals devouring our culture as we retreat into musical negativity and thugged out confusion. Everyone seems to have a plan but us. We merely interface with them in spots we are allowed as we assist in our own cultural demise. In its March edition Source Magazine reported that Vanilla Ice has crawled outta his creative grave as he is attempting to get a distribution deal on a new CD that features Wu-Tang Clan and Public Enemy. Stay tuned...

Black His-story Month is a fertile period for the enemy to unleash anti-Afrikan Propaganda. PBS program dealing with Marcus Garvey was a full plate of dis-information (lies), distortions and revisionist history. Black Historians were used to legitimize the stapling of Marcus to the Cross. Crafty editing co-opted their observations. Meanwhile, it was repeated over and over that Garvey was stubborn, hard headed and refused to take advice from others. Yet, as they were recapping his down fall they said he listened to and trusted too many people (an obvious contradiction). They used to hardly mention Garvey but since they feel they have completely destroyed the popular image and truth of Malcolm X they now move on to pasteurize Garvey's image. These liberal concoctions are no replacement for us placing our-story at the center of everything we do as we attempt to rehabilitate our damaged race. Every time we are attacked in the enemy's media we must counter attack. We can not afford to sleep anything, 90% of warfare is cultural and our culture is damaged daily by the propaganda machinery of the enemy. Dare to struggle, dare to win!....

Another example of the white media running amuck was their award winning news-magazine 60 minutes, which just touched the surface of De Beers Diamonds and its role in the destabilization of Afrika for the exploitation and control of every diamond on the face of the earth. The program went on to expose the practice of punishment by decapitation as children, adults and the elderly were shown and interviewed about the terror of being Black in Afrika while the Oppenheimers of the world are fighting to maintain control of Afrika's land, labor and resources. However, missing was an accurate account of the history of capitalistic punishment of Afrikan people under their boots when unrealistic production came up short. The Kaiser of Germany, King Leopold of Belgium and every other kind of white or Arab invader always used terror for control and domination. What about the half that haven't been told? It's dangerous knowing nothing about your own plight and it is worse to let the enemy's media fill in the blanks for you. Search for truth for it shall set ya free....

Finally, we need to zero in on some of our assets and expand them. In this case, I don't know if many of our people realize that there are thousands of Afrikan Study Groups around the world. We need to expand the number, cultivate them into local organizations and then connect them locally, regionally, nationally and globally. In the past the church and trade unionism throughout the Black world was used to develop political activities and parties. That was yesterday, today our people have organized themselves to collectively study our-story. the natural next step is developing them in forums for action. In Afrika and the Islands trade unionism led the struggle until it was corrupted. Today the diversity of these groups and level of study can help put the race into focus. We must organize our collective intellect to meet tomorrow's challenges. I'm personally working with many groups throughout the world. Nkrumah taught us that "Practice without thought is blind; thought without practice is empty." Think about it.....
