

Drug Companies & the Avian Flu Hustle

by Del Jones aka Nana Kuntu The War Correspondent

As the so-called legal drug industry manipulates the willing mass media into participating in yet another hustle on the Amerikkkan people, we sit in dark chambers of ignorance. Let's see there was the: massive inoculations of the population for the flu, which included the demonically cute "we don't have enough for everybody" scam, and of course, the on going oil and energy hustles and price gouging, now the Bird Flu hustle guaranteed to make the criminal and murderous pharmaceutical firms richer and even more powerful. What is Avian (Bird) Flu? The Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) explains it this way:

Bird flu is an infection caused by avian (bird) influenza (flu) viruses. These flu viruses occur naturally among birds. Wild birds worldwide carry the viruses in their intestines, but usually do not get sick from them. However, bird flu is very contagious among birds and can make some domesticated birds, including chickens, ducks, and turkeys, very sick and kill them. In addition, Bird Flu viruses do not usually infect humans, but several cases of human infection with bird flu viruses have occurred since 1997.

It is important to understand that, strains of avian influenza may infect various types of animals, including birds, pigs, horses, seals, whales and humans. However, wild fowl act as natural asymptomatic carriers, spreading it to more susceptible domestic stocks. Avian influenza spreads in the air and in manure. It can also be transmitted by contaminated feed, water, equipment and clothing; however, there is no evidence that the virus can survive in well cooked meat. Further we must realize that:

The incubation period is 3 to 5 days. Symptoms in animals vary, but virulent strains can cause death within a few days. In humans, avian flu causes similar symptoms to other types of flu. These include fever, cough, sore throat, muscle aches, conjunctivitis and, in severe cases, severe breathing problems and pneumonia that may be fatal. The severity of the infection will depend to a large part on the state of the infected person's immune system...

Oh snap! That's it... it can only take you down if you have a busted immune system, which is the key to defeating everything that attacks your body. Do you feel me? That is one of the best kept secrets in this country, the immune system is a major key to good health. No rocket science here except for one thing, they wanna kill ya not heal ya. However, they want your death to be slow and profitable (to them) as they de-populate the earth. That is their goal as documented in the Global 2000 Report issued under the Carter Administration. Yes that's former President Jimmy Carter of the Trilateral Commission, a deadly New World Order (NWO) demon.

Obviously, there is no money in telling you to boost your immune system to its optimum level. In addition, they have important annihilation goals that would not be realized. Naturally, that would also eliminate Fast Food outta ya diet and things like genetically altered food, soda, sweets and other immune system killers would be left on the shelves damaging their economy.

They market their drugs and policies just like any thing else, with mass media saturation, synthetic terror, ignorance and the betrayal of trust. Combined this cocktail of evil maims and kills. As the pockets of the victim are emptied they are carted away to overpriced hospital beds and cemeteries. All resulting from a degreed idiot prescribing as many drugs as possible in the names of science, medicine and "care giving."

"My doctors love me" you scream at these pages through a mouth full of poison potions and pharmaceuticals. You fantasize that these miseducated folk in their pearl white jackets are angels sent by your God to heal you as you get higher and higher from the medication, the food and Amerikkka's backward culture of death by legal pushers from the upper crust.

Ya can't get tired, ya can't get weary, these people will continue to come at ya until they are stopped. Keeping tabs on their hustles and deadly scams is critical to our survival. One slip and your ass is dead. For example, ABC News authored this piece of propaganda entitled: "U.N. Flu Czar Warns of Coming Flu Pandemic:"

In a news conference announcing the U.N. effort, Nabarro, the top health crisis official at the World Health Organization, warned that the potential threat could kill as many as 150 million humans if the world does not take action to contain or prevent the spread of the disease.

First of all what is a "Flu Czar?" A Czar is a dictator and one with absolute powers. It is a word kicked around too loosely. Anything operating out of the United Nations is corrupt and New World Order driven (that ain't good). No this punk is a drug salesman hustling us because we dug the other flu hustles, so this one has a new wrinkle leading to the multi-billion dollar scam.

In addition ABC, like their other media pals, is doing its job of setting up the "marks" of this hustle...us! Meanwhile, the report revealed that:

President Bush has announced an international partnership aimed at preventing an avian flu pandemic...Nabarro spoke extensively about how Tamiflu was the "only medicine we've got" – but that "we don't know how well it works." He said there were nowhere near enough doses because the production capacity was not yet high enough. He said part of his job would be to work with Tamiflu's maker, the pharmaceutical giant Roche, to ensure more of the drug is made, distributed, and set aside for first responders.

Now here is "the Czar" talking about mass producing a drug and giving it to billions of people and he don't even know whether it works. More importantly, he is not even concerned whether it has toxic side effects that will damage or end life. President Bush has even threatened to use the military to force the population to submit to forced inoculation. These people are serious about depopulation and the Black Holocaust. CNN reported recently that the Amerikkkan president said:

"One option is the use of a military that's able to plan and move," he said. "So that's why I put it on the table. I think it's an important debate for Congress to have." The Posse Comitatus Act of 1878 bans the military from participating in police-type activity on U.S. soil. But Dr. Irwin Redlener, associate dean of Columbia University's Mailman School of Public Health and director of its National Center for Disaster Preparedness, told The Associated Press the president's suggestion was dangerous.

Giving the military a law enforcement role would be an "extraordinarily Draconian measure" that would be unnecessary if the nation had built the capability for rapid vaccine production, ensured a large supply of anti-virals like Tamiflu and not allowed the degradation of the public health system. "The translation of this is martial law in the United States," Redlener said.

They seem to think we slept the use of foreign troops, the infamous Blackwater mercenaries and the U.S. military against the people recently in New Orleans after it was struck with hurricane Katrina.

In addition, I hope you understand that this a discussion on how to kill you: by force or by persuasion, either way they intend to inoculate you one way or another. They believe if this scare doesn't work the next one will. However, the most dangerous component of their health systems is its relying on vaccines: Curtis Cost taught us this in his book "Vaccines Are Dangerous:"

Vaccines can have serious and even deadly side effects. Thousands of lawsuits have been filed against the U.S. Government for side effects resulting from vaccines... Vaccines are unnatural because poisonous substances and animals are used to make them... These disgusting foreign substances are pumped directly into a person's blood system where they can mutate and later combine with the genetic code of an individual who in turn can genetically pass these Frankenstein substances to his or her children...Scientists are currently working on "advanced" genetically engineered vaccines which may unleash new and unimaginable horrors on the human race.

This is why they don't care whether the drug is tested and safe, for they are not healers but killers in white lab jackets, suits with small Amerikkkan flags pinned on. Some are even adorned in military and police garb at the ready to hold you down while they invade your body. Proceed with caution as they conspire to depopulate this planet. Let me sign off with this from my book, "Invasion of de Body Snatchers: Hi-Tech Barbarians:"

The horror of our continuing holocaust can be measured by the death, decay and misery brought upon us by our enemies. No deed is too dastardly, no pain too vivid for their conscious. They are historically consistent and we of all people, should know this. Our blood flows like the Nile and the 21st century will be unobtainable if we continue to let them slaughter us this way. Inside our bodies we allow them to travel with their potions, filth and hatred of the people darker than blue. It's the invasion of de body snatchers by hi-tech barbarians... Holla.
